

7.020 Guidelines for Inspecting Camps

Your role as a Camp Leader is to plan, organise and implement the Camp. It is not necessary for you to be an expert in leading all the activities at Camp. Using outside Resource People in your programmed activities can add additional interest and fun for your campers, and introduce them to a whole range of activities that they might otherwise never enjoy. Consider any of the following as potential sources for Resource People:

- ◆ Provincial/Municipal Parks
- ◆ Orienteerers
- ◆ Military supply depots
- ◆ Bird watchers
- ◆ Churches and YMCA.
- ◆ Royal Life Saving Society
- ◆ Geologists
- ◆ Royal Botanical Gardens
- ◆ Ski patrols
- ◆ Cottagers/Farmers
- ◆ Pioneer Villages
- ◆ Radio clubs
- ◆ Native Reserves
- ◆ Scouters/Guiders
- ◆ Voyagers
- ◆ Ministry of Natural Resources
- ◆ Outfitters
- ◆ Wilderness camps
- ◆ Nutritionists
- ◆ United Way
- ◆ Power squadrons
- ◆ Colleges & Universities
- ◆ Canoe club members
- ◆ Conservation Resources
- ◆ St. John Ambulance personnel
- ◆ Museums
- ◆ Horticulturists
- ◆ Snow mobile clubs
- ◆ Search & Rescue
- ◆ Collectors
- ◆ Hunters
- ◆ Teachers
- ◆ Outward Bound
- ◆ Hikers
- ◆ Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary clubs
- ◆ Private camps
- ◆ Campers
- ◆ Salvation Army
- ◆ Coast Guard
