Our Privacy Policy and Legal Information

The St. John Ambulance (SJA) Ontario Provincial Website (StJohnOnline.ca/CadetsOnline.ca) understands your right to privacy. Our Privacy Policy outlines what information we may collect about you and how you are using our web site, how we protect this information and how the information is used. Please read our Policy carefully so that you understand our commitment to your privacy.

St. John Ambulance may decide to change this policy from time to time. When we do, we will post those changes on this page so that you are always aware of the information we collect and how we use it.

Personal Information Collected and Usage

Personal information is collected should you wish to become an active online contributor/member of our website and participate in our online discussions and be notified of website changes and postings.

St. John Ambulance uses your city, affiliation, province and country to assist us and our other online members who are participating in group discussion with you to help understand your perspective and experience.

The personal information you provide through these services is voluntary and is maintained only for the period of time your online account with us exists. You are able to remove/delete your information and your online account from our website at any time by editing your online personal profile.

It is not necessary to register your name or submit any personal information should you choose not to access these services. You are free to view our website and read its content without registering or sharing your information. Should you wish to take an active role with our website and participate; you will need to register for an online account with our website and share your name, affiliation, city, province, country and email address.

Tracking Website Visits

The IP (Internet Protocol) numbers of computers (servers) used to visit sites are part of our statistical analysis on the use of our web sites so we may better design services and improve access to them. However, the site cannot gain personally identifiable information on individual users and associate them with IP addresses.

Disclosure of Information

St. John Ambulance is committed to your privacy. If you use our services, our site, StJohnOnline.ca/CadetsOnline.ca may include your name, email address, affiliation and locale within your submissions/postings to our discussion areas. St. John Ambulance will never give out the information you give to us on our web forms nor will we deliver unsolicited advertising, sell or otherwise market this information from this website other than how stated above.

Disclosure of Information you provide will only be released if required to do so in order to comply with a legal request such as a search warrant, subpoena, statute or court order.

Our Commitment to Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.
